

Boat Building Traditions of Currituck County

A Maritime Heritage Open House

Maritime Open House

1:00-4:00 pm, September 21st, 2013

UNC Coastal Studies Institute
850 Highway 345, Wanchese, NC

Join us as we celebrate the cultural heritage of northeastern North Carolina during our maritime open house. Interact with UNC-CSI archaeologists and graduate students from ECU's Program in Maritime studies as they highlight their recent research on Currituck county small watercraft and the shipwrecks located just off our shores.

Featuring exhibits by:

- * UNC-CSI research and education programs
