

East Carolina University's Millennial Campus

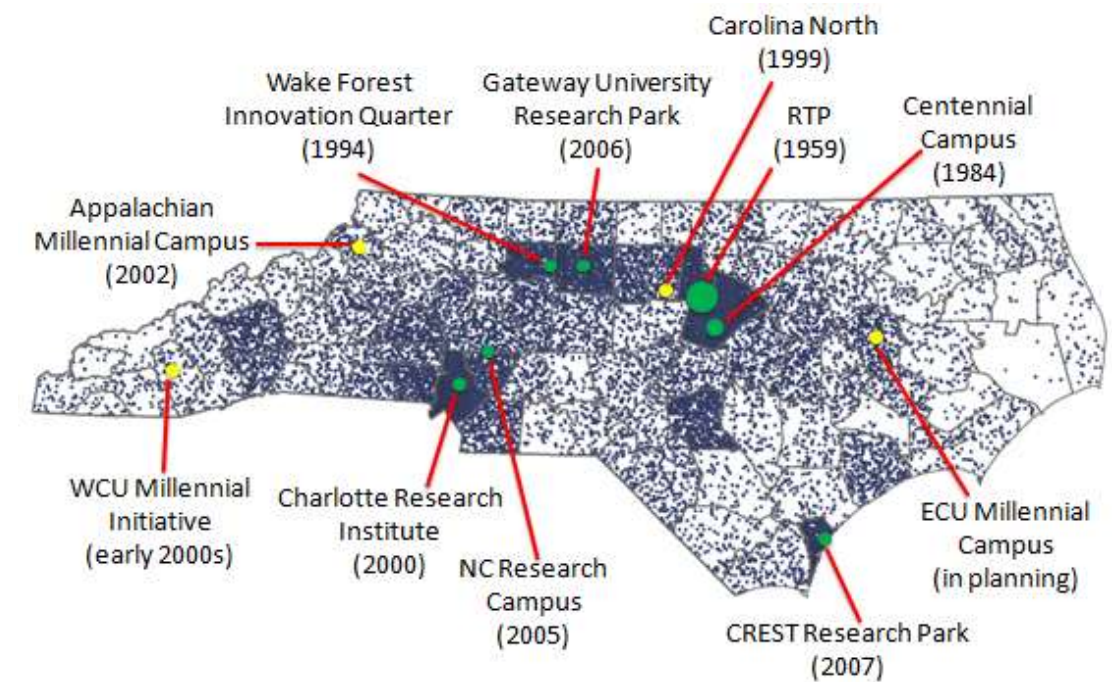

Client Background

- East Carolina University
- Large University looking to expand
- Intending on opening a millennial campus
- Want to rehabilitate the older buildings in the Warehouse District In Greenville, North Carolina
- Create a place for Graduates, and many other people

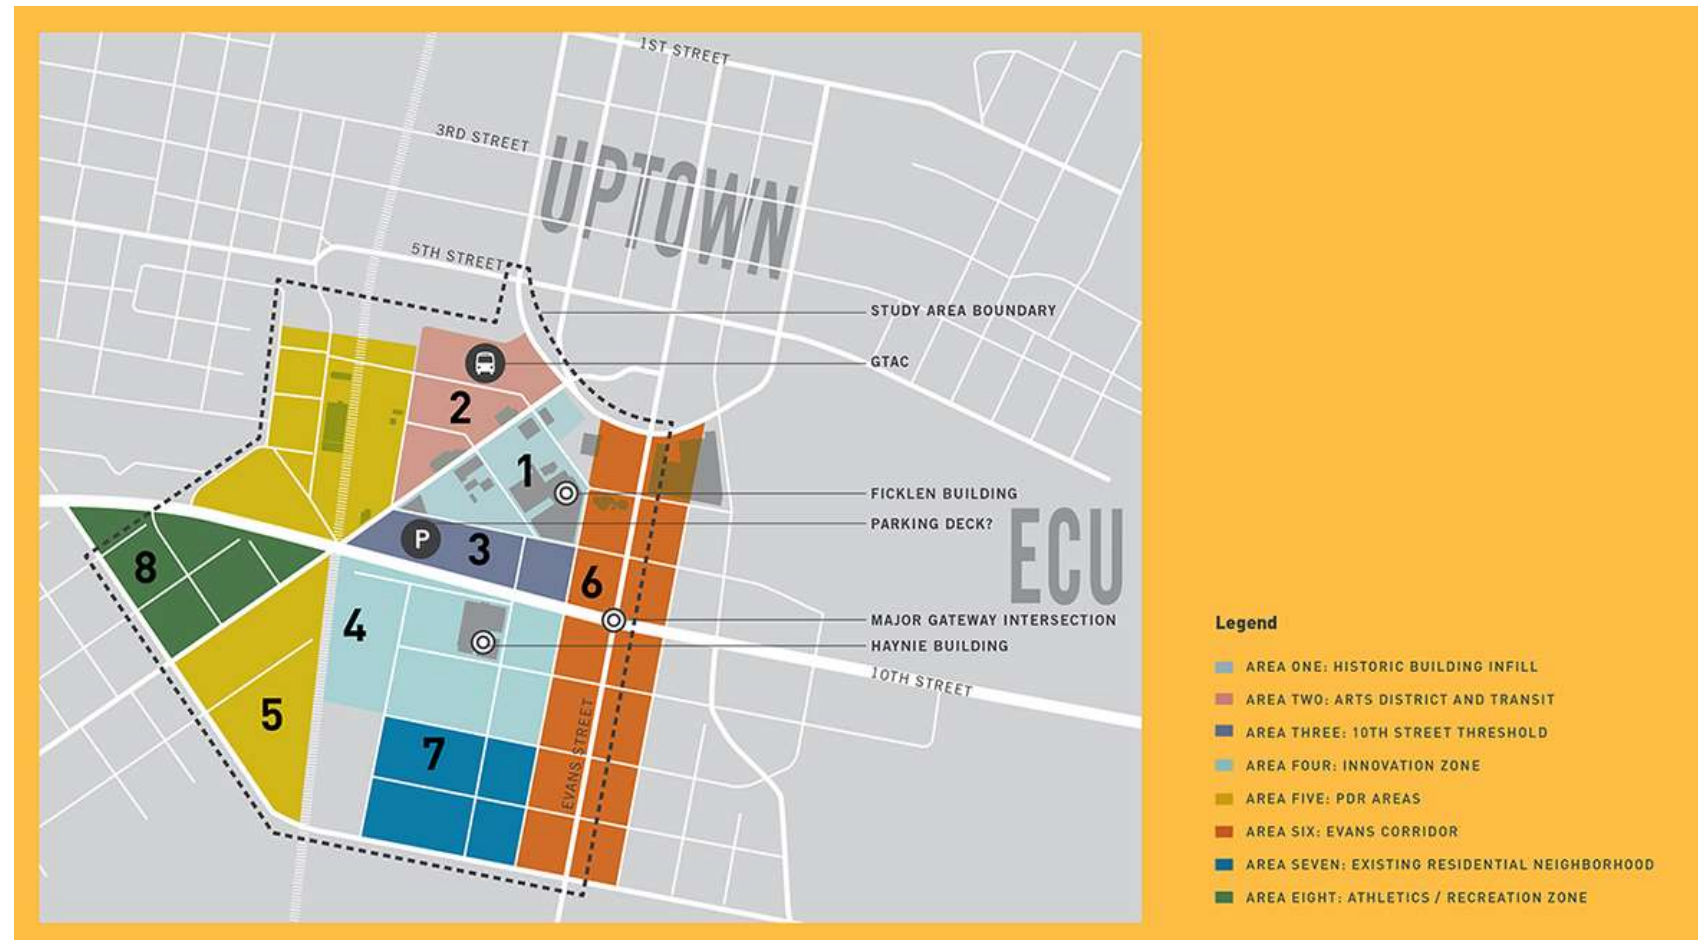

About the Millennial Campus

- Place for collaboration
- Used to benefit East Carolina and Greenville, North Carolina
- It will cover a 22.3 acre area
- Only a couple of blocks from East Carolina
- Used to attract businesses
- Used to create a place for research and innovation
- The picture shows the other Millennial and research campuses in NC

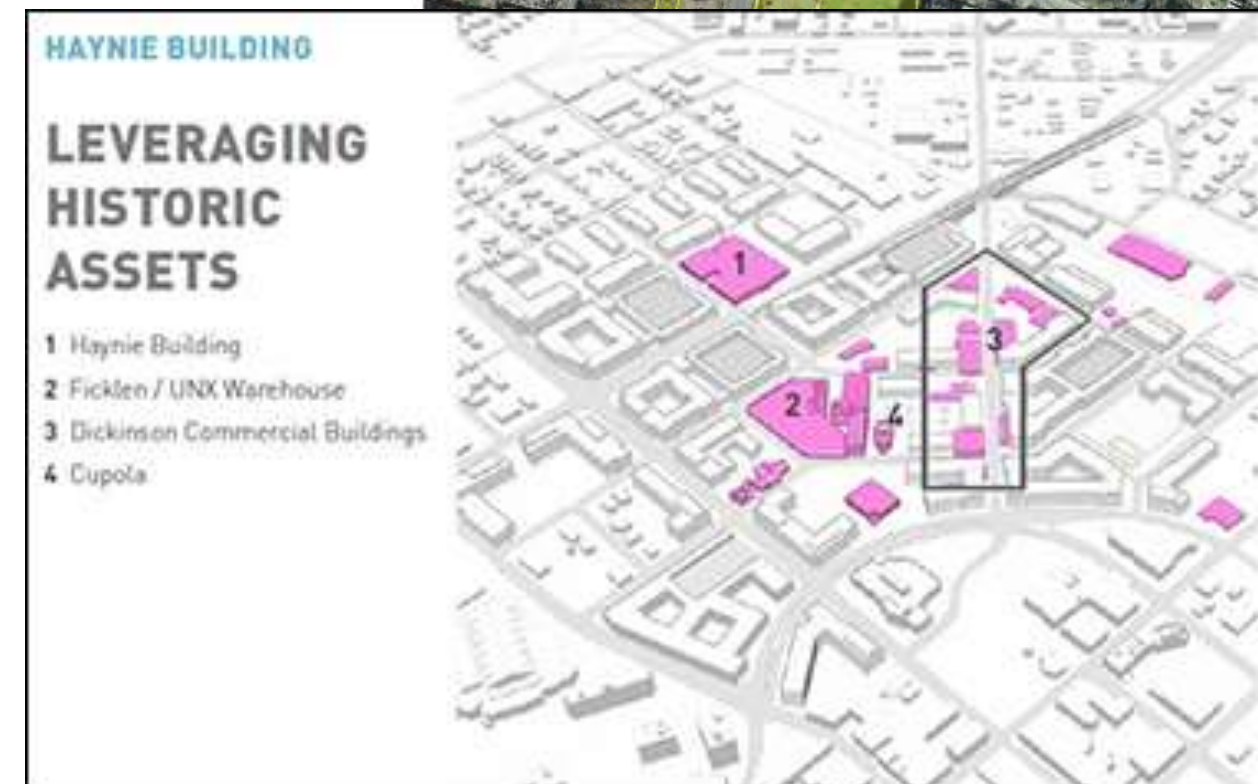

Who it is being built for:

- Graduates from ECU and other schools from all over
- Open for anyone even if non graduates
- Attracts businesses and workers
- Military partners
- Government partners
- Educators
- Researchers
- Future interns

What the Campus is being used for:

- Improving Greenville
- Research and innovation
- Office spaces
- Businesses and available spaces
- Historic preservation

Perspective applicants:

Name: Bradley Moore

Age: 25 yrs. Old

Gender: Male

College: East Carolina University

Degree: Computer Security Research

Graduated: May 15, 2018

Experience: Interned at Network Solutions and Optimization, LLC.

