Generating Growth

Like tobacco plants, ideas grow too.

Concept

A serene and friendly environment.

The space will generate productivity and creativity.

This will be achieved in the color, movement, forms, and light of the space.

Color Concept

Earth tones are rich, warm colors that are inviting and comfortable to be around. They create a nature-friendly environment and keep one's connection to the Earth. Representing growth in nature, these colors help convey the concept of the overall space.
