PFI MISSION

The SECU Public Fellows Internship Program focuses on strengthening eastern North Carolina communities by bringing in talented, skilled students to work in professional internships. The program is unique in its mission to combine a traditional internship experience with a community engaged mission, partnering students with leaders in local government, nonprofits and private businesses to solve local problems.

WHY CHOOSE PFI?

The benefits of the SECU Public Fellows Internship Program go beyond the $4,500 stipend for interns. Students may be tasked with exploring community and economic development, grant writing, or project implementation, strengthening core competencies gained through academic programs and experiential learning. The program also includes professional and leadership development components, specifically workshops on communication, business etiquette, networking and professional practice.

ELIGIBILITY

The SECU Public Fellows Internship Program is open to ECU undergraduate students who meet the following requirements:

- North Carolina resident
- 3.0 GPA or higher in major field of study
- Completed at least 60 semester credit hours

Applicants will be selected by a team from the Office of Community Engagement and Research and additional faculty representatives.
